FOOD FOR THE WEEK

Deuteronomy 8.2-3, 14-16

Reading I Ps 147.12-13, 14-15, 19-20

Responsorial Psalm 1 Corinthians 10.16-17

Reading II John 6.51-59

Gospel This is indeed a great mystery – the sacred power and presence of Christ in bread and wine, and the intimate meal offering food for the journey, for both saints and sinners. Little wonder that there is often tension and argument as we seek to understand the mystery of the Eucharist.

As God does with us when we pray, so we are nourished in the closeness and intimacy of this feast. Let us pray.

We would appreciate it very much if you identified yourself at Mass. It would also help if you would take the time to fill out a registration form. The next time you are with us, you may leave it in the collection basket or give it to one of the ushers or to the priest. Welcome.
