FOOD FOR THE WEEK

Reading I Isaiah 55.1-3

Responsorial Psalm Ps 145.8-9, 15-16, 17-18, (R,16)

Reading II Romans 8.35, 37-39

Gospel Matthew 14.13-21

Think of the food left over. The twelve baskets seem a lot and we're not told what happened to them. The food had been the food of the poor – barely bread and sardines.

In Jesus' mind, this meal feeds us today. Enough was left over to feed the souls of the world for all time. The apostles who fed the crowd still feed us today in the word of Jesus and in the Eucharist, and each time we receive the bread of the Eucharist.

ROMAN MISSAL The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) has received recognition for all sections of the English translation of the revised Roman Missal for use in Canada. The Permanent Council has agreed that the first Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011, will be the date for the implementation of the English translation of the Missal.

Why is the Catholic Church implementing a revised English translation of the Order of Mass? The words are being revised for two basic reasons. One is that the contents of the book that we have been calling the Sacramentary have been expanded. Such books are always published first in Latin, and then need to be translated into vernacular languages. Now that there is a third edition, the Sacramentary is out of date. More significantly, the Vatican has changed its theory of translation. It used to allow a free rendering of the words inspired by the idioms of the vernacular language. Now the Vatican is asking for a translation that adheres more closely to the original.

All of the changes, with details, can be found at the entrance of the Church. Novalis has published a 5x9 tri-fold Card with the revised prayers and people's responses – our Liturgy Committee has ordered copies which will remain in the pews. Although the changes will come into effect only on the first Sunday of Advent, November 27th, Fr. Gyan would like to begin practising the changes in the fall.

CAMP ARK St. Stephen's is indeed hosting its Camp ARK: Acts of Random Kindness Ecumenical Daily Vacation Bible School once again. It will be held at the church hall from Monday August 8th until Thursday August 11th - drop off begins at 8:30am and activities run between 9am and 4pm. There will be an ecumenical closing service on the Thursday night (Aug 11th) at 7:30pm. All local ministers and congregations will be most welcome. We've already been in contact with Stacey from St. Andrew's and I believe a number of the children who attend the United Sunday School will be coming to the camp. I know there are also a number from OLV and the Lutheran congregations too.

Registration is open until August 1st and parents who are still interested should contact myself or my sister, Marnie Brown at 819-281-5284 or 6mb11@queensu.ca to register. Ages 4 to 13 are welcome. Registration for camp is offered free of charge to all families, but we will be undertaking a fundraising campaign over the next month to help cover costs. For more information you may call the OLV office at 819 986-3763.
