FOOD FOR THE WEEK

Reading I	Jeremiah 20.7-9
Responsorial Psalm	Ps 63.1, 2-3, 4-5, 7-8 (R.Ia)
Reading II	Romans 12.1-2
Gospel	Matthew 16.21-27

- Taking up one's cross is a central thought in the gospels. In life, it takes many forms, but it is always painful. Sometimes it never ends. Jesus bore a cross to the end of his life.
- On the way to Calvary, Jesus was helped by one man. Simon from Africa. Help can come from expected or unexpected quarters: from family, friends, or even foes, but help there must be if we are bear our crosses in life.
- Can I help and support someone near me to carry the burdens of their lives? It might start with a smile, with a word, with a hand outstretched.

ROMAN MISSAL The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) has received recognition for all sections of the English translation of the revised Roman Missal for use in Canada. The Permanent Council has agreed that the first Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011, will be the date for the implementation of the English translation of the Missal.

Why is the Catholic Church implementing a revised English translation of the Order of Mass? The words are being revised for two basic reasons. One is that the contents of the book that we have been calling the Sacramentary have been expanded. Such books are always published first in Latin, and then need to be translated into vernacular languages. Now that there is a third edition, the Sacramentary is out of date. More significantly, the Vatican has changed its theory of translation. It used to allow a free rendering of the words inspired by the idioms of the vernacular language. Now the Vatican is asking for a translation that adheres more closely to the original.

All of the changes, with details, can be found at the entrance of the Church. Novalis has published a 5x9 tri-fold Card with the revised prayers and people's responses – our Liturgy Committee has ordered copies which will remain in the pews. Although the changes will come into effect only on the first Sunday of Advent, November 27th, Fr. Gyan would like to begin practising the changes in the fall.

DID YOU KNOW

The O'Neil Heritage Cemetery is located on Church Street in Buckingham and is managed by Our Lady of Victory Parish. In 1836, the O'Neil family donated 10 acres of land for a church, priest house and cemetery and some substantive farming. The cemetery covered an area of approximately 2.5 acres.

In the Parish ledger, there are the names of 674 people who were buried on the site. It is thought that there may be up to 800 people who were buried in the site, but that number has never been confirmed. The cemetery was operational from 1844 to 1879. It is believed that, at one time, the cemetery contained a grand total of 200 monuments and iron and wooden crosses, many of which were destroyed prior to Our Lady of Victory Parish taking over responsibility for the gravesite. In the early 1980's, a major effort was undertaken to restore as many monuments as possible. All bits and pieces of monuments that were found were embedded in 4 concrete slabs around the central monument. There are 44 monuments that remain intact.

Responsibility for the cemetery was transferred to Our Lady of Victory Parish by Bishop Paul E. Charbonneau on April 22nd 1964. The cemetery was designated a "Historical Site" by the Town of Buckingham on September 8th 1964. Among those buried in the cemetery were Mary O'Farrell in 1856 and Ann Brady in 1867, mother and sister of Father John Brady, the first parish priest.

ARE YOU NEW TO OUR PARISH?

Welcome to all who want to make their faith home here! You may have come from other places. You may have been "away for a while". Be assured that we love to have you among us. We would appreciate it very much if you identified yourself at Mass. It would also help if you would take the time to fill out a registration form. The next time you are with us, you may leave it in the collection basket or give it to one of the ushers or to the priest. Welcome.
