FOOD FOR THE WEEK

Reading I	Isaiah 55.6 - 9
Responsorial Psalm	The Lord is near to all who call on him.
Reading II	Philippians 1.20 - 24,27
Gospel	Matthew 20.1 - 16
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The "Kingdom of Heaven," which the parable tries to explain, is not a reward ceremony at which compliments are made about work done and time given to God. Those who labour long in the field of virtue do so not to win any reward, but in but to reveal the goodness they experience through their relationship with God. Whatever goodness we have is a gift to us from God through others. God will surprise us all the time with generosity.

NEW TRANSLATION OF THE ROMAN MISSAL

On the First Sunday of Advent 2011, we will begin to use the new English translation of the Roman Missal. Over the last few weeks, we detailed some of the new responses called for in the New Roman Missal. This week, the new Memorial Acclamation and Communion declaration are given below. The changes are in bold face and underlined.

Priest: The mystery of faith.

All: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Or:

When we eat this bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Or:

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATIONS:

In order to plan for the various sacraments, i.e. Baptism, Eucharist (First Communion), and Confirmation, it would be appreciated if parishioners would contact the Parish Office at (819) 986-3763.
