Responsorial Psalm	Let your love be upon us, Lord, even as we hope in you.
Reading II	Hebrews 4.14-16
Gospel	Mark 10.35-45
Many titles of the Lord include the word “servant”: servant king, servant Messiah, servant Lord. This is one of Jesus’ deepest identities-he is among us as who serves. OUR LITURGY COMMITTEE

“The Liturgy Committee is comprised of a number of parishioners from both parishes who, together with the pastor, look after and coordinate all that pertains to the liturgical life of the two parishes. They meet 5-6 times a year and at their meetings, they assess the quality of our liturgical celebrations, reflect on the strong points and the weak areas, and prepare for the different seasons of the church’s liturgical year”.

This is the mission statement which reflects our two-parish Liturgy Committee. It has been issued at various activities in the past, has been published in our weekly bulletin, and can be found on our website under Who We Are. The membership of the Liturgy Committee is as follows:

- Fr. Gyan
- St. Malachy - Jean Dunnigan, Vivian Lamarche, Lorraine McDermid and Virginia Sellers
- OLV - Isabel Laframboise, Margaret Gauthier and Val Rowe
- Greg Guest represents both parishes to coordinate the music
- Although the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) no longer meets, members of the previous PPC from both parishes attend Liturgy Committee meetings and offer help and support where needed.

The Committee met recently to review a number of upcoming liturgies. At this meeting, there was a discussion about the existing committee. After much dialogue, a decision was made to continue meetings between both parish representatives to coordinate the liturgical life of our parishes. It was further agreed that this information be published in the bulletin to ensure parishioners of the continuation of this very important committee.

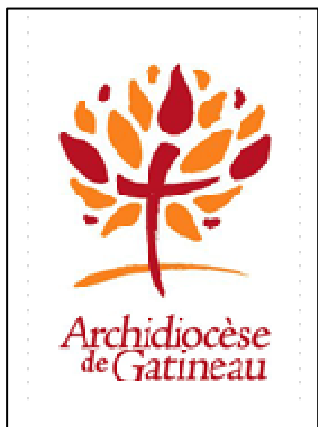

With regard to the upcoming Advent season, the Liturgy Committee has made decisions about the theme which will be used in our two churches, after reviewing the different resources provided by Novalis. More information will be published as we get closer to Advent.

There is always a need for new blood and new ideas on any committee. If anyone would like to join the Liturgy Committee, please contact the parish Secretary at 819-986-3763.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION

Last week, Archbishop Paul-André Durocher invited all those involved in the preparation of sacraments in the English parishes of the diocese to a meeting to review how each parish prepares for sacraments. The meeting was very much appreciated by all those in attendance and everyone is looking forward to further meetings with the Archbishop who will be providing much-needed leadership and guidance to the volunteers.

For the time being, the Archbishop indicated that sacramental preparations should continue as we have been doing. Baptisms are usually held as required, but First Communion and Confirmation need to be coordinated. Therefore, please register with the Secretary no later than November 12th for the sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation.
