FOOD FOR THE WEEK

Reading 1 Wisdom 9.13-18
Responsorial Psalm Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.
Reading II Philemon 9b-10, 12-17
Gospel Luke 14.25-33

·This is the point at which my prayer begins: the father (Jesus' most developed image of God) is not sitting at home brooding about the "mistake" of financing his younger son's follies, but standing at his doorway, scanning the road by which the boy may come back; running to embrace him, silencing his apologies, calling a party to celebrate his own joy.
·Lord, you are watching out for me, I do not need to make speeches to you, but simply to enjoy your embrace.

TO THE ENGLISH-LANGUAGE PARISHES AND COMMUNITIES OF THE ARCHDIOCESE

Last spring, workshops were held in French to train lay men and women to lead Sunday Celebrations of the Word in parishes when a priest is not available to preside at the Eucharist. Archbishop Durocher has developed new guidelines for the diocese in this regard, and it is important that we all be on the same wavelength when it comes to this reality.

Archbishop Durocher is pleased to offer the same workshop for the English sector of our diocese. Each parish should designate a small team (three or four parishioners) who can participate in this training and be available to lead Sunday Celebrations of the Word when called to do so in their parish. These individuals are invited to attend the training session which will be held on Tuesday evening October 22nd at St. Aloysius Gonzaga Parish, 300 de l'Abbé-Murray St. in Gatineau. The meeting will start at 6:00 pm with a light lunch, courtesy of the Diocese. We'll get down to business at 6:30 and finish at 9:00 pm (we realize that a weekday evening is difficult for some, but the next Saturday which is free for Archbishop Durocher is January!).

The resource book which will guide our discussion is published by the CCCB under the title "Sunday Celebration of the Word and Hours". Each parish should have at least one "ambo" edition (hard cover – larger format) as well as a couple of "study" editions (soft cover – smaller format) for individual members of the team.

+Paul-André Durocher

Please Note: The Diocese will need the names of participants no later than October 11th. Please advise the Secretary of your interest so that she can coordinate everything with the diocese.

SACRAMENTS: If you wish to register your children for the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion or Confirmation, you may contact the Parish Office at 819-986-3763, prior to October 6, 2013.

SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE:

Given the low numbers of engaged couples requiring English-language preparation in view of the sacrament of Marriage, the team that has been leading weekends over the past few years has decided to offer its program on an individual / small group basis.

Engaged couples will meet individually or in small groups with team couples over a period of time, according to a timetable that will be determined with them according to their availability.

Mrs. Ginette Delorme at the Diocesan Centre will act as contact person for this new format. All engaged couples wishing to prepare their Marriage in English should be directed to contact her by phone (819-771-8391, ext. 222) or by email at: delormeg@diocesegatineau.org

PILGRIMAGE TO ST. JOSEPH'S ORATORY on Sunday October 13. There will be a stop at the Shrine of St. Kateri Tekawitha. Bishop Marcel Dmphousse, Bishop of the Diocese of Alexandria/Cornwall will be your guide. For more information, please contact Mike Budge at (613) 224-8110.

Our Weekly Offerings

At every weekend mass at Our Lady of Victory and St. Malachy, offerings are brought up to the altar. Do you know what we do with the food collected? The non-perishable food is delivered to the local food bank (La mie de l'entraide at 422 Pine Street). The Director of the food bank has recently advised us that the number of users has again increased – partly because many needy families have incurred extra costs related to the new school term, but also due to loss of employment and long waits for employment insurance to kick in, and many cases of sickness and related costs. Another statistic is that there are more young adults who visit the food bank.

August, September, December and January are the busiest months at La mie de l'entraide. If everyone donated just one (1) non-perishable from our cupboards every week, what a beautiful gesture that would be from our two parishes!

ST. MALACHY'S:

The next meeting for the Wardens will be on Wednesday September 18th, 2013, at 7:00 p.m.

OLV News:

There will be a meeting of the OLV Wardens on Thursday September 19th at 7PM in the Rectory.

HARVEST SUPPER: The Harvest Supper at OLV Church hall will be held on October 25, 2013. Please reserve this date in your calendars. More information will be provided during the following weeks.

ST. GREGOIRE CEMETERY:

Please note when you next visit the St. Grégoire cemetery you may notice that on certain monuments there is a small sign attached which states the following: Please communicate with us at 819-986-8585.

If your monument or that of your deceased parents has such an attachment it is because there is a need to update your family file. The information required could be as simple as a change of address, or a new family contact person.

It often happens that following a death, neither the family nor the designated contact person advises the cemetery coordinator of any changes to their file.

If this is the case, please do not hesitate to arrange a meeting by contacting our office at 819-986-8585.

ARE YOU NEW TO OUR PARISH?

Welcome to all who want to make their faith home here! You may have come from other places. You may have been “away for a while”. Be assured that we love to have you among us. We would appreciate it very much if you identified yourself at Mass. It would also help if you would take the time to fill out a registration form. The next time you are with us, you may leave it in the collection basket or give it to one of the ushers or to the priest.

Welcome
