MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

Our Archbishop, as part of his commitment to social justice, has set aside, on a monthly basis, a set of questions we as Christians need to reflect upon and ask ourselves. This month the focus is on men and women who are unemployed. This week's question is as follows:

How do I best encounter the face of God today by helping someone find a job?

25th Anniversary of Fr. Gyan's Priesthood

May 2nd 2014 marked 25 years of priesthood for Fr. Gyan.

During his recent time spent at his home in India, Fr. Gyan's family and friends celebrated this anniversary, beginning with a mass.

Close to 2,000 people joined the family in this celebration, as can be seen in these photos.

On behalf of all parishioners from both Our Lady of Victory and St. Malachy, we wish to express our congratulations to Fr. Gyan for his 25 years devoted to his ministry, as well as to thank him for his unselfish support for our faith community.

DIOCESAN PASTORAL LAUNCH

This year Archbishop Durocher chose to hold the diocesan launch in June rather than September. Three members, representative of OLV and St. Malachy, were in attendance.

After visiting all the parishes of the Diocese, listening to our shared concerns, discussion and prayer, the Archbishop launched a two-fold pastoral priority for the next three years, from June 2014 to June 2017 under the title "FREE THE GIFTS, SHARE THE WORD". Pope Francis is also inviting the whole Church to enter into a pastoral and missionary conversion.

"FREE THE GIFTS, SHARE THE WORD" will be our response, therefore, to the preoccupations arising in our parish communities, as well as Pope Francis' invitation.

The first dimension "Free the Gifts, will be comprised of four six-month blocks. In the first six-month block (June 2014 to Dec. 2014), the area of reflection is entitled: "WELCOME"

Next week's bulletin will expand on this topic.
