Today's Gospel (Matthew 13.1-23) marks the beginning of the third long discourse given by Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew. Over the next few weeks, the Gospel readings will consist of the entire 13th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel, a lengthy teaching discourse. Throughout this discourse, Jesus will offer several parables to illustrate for his listeners what he means by the kingdom of heaven.

He begins with the parable of the sower. Jesus then explains his use of parables. The hearer must engage in some degree of reflection in order to comprehend the message of a parable. Those who are willing to engage themselves in the effort to understand will be rewarded by the discovery of the message and will bear fruit.

To bring home the point, Jesus interprets the parable of the sower to his disciples. The different types of soil in which the seeds are sown are metaphors for the disposition with which each individual hears the teaching about the kingdom of heaven. Some will be easily swayed away from the kingdom of heaven. Some will receive it for a time but will lose it when faced with difficulties. Some will hear the word but will then permit other cares to choke it out.

Yet some will receive it well, and the seed will produce abundant fruit.

FREE THE GIFT, SHARE THE WORD

WELCOME (Part 3 of 3)

Jesus meets a blind beggar on the road from Jericho to Jerusalem and asks "What do you want me to do for you?" This question may seem superfluous; the man is blind; it is obvious that he wants his sight. Yet Jesus gives him a chance to say it, to express himself. "Sir", he answered, "I want to see again."

We, too, must allow our brothers and sisters to express themselves. Mutual love manifests itself first of all in our welcoming, rather than our preoccupations in terms of our needs. The first conversion we need to undertake: to first welcome people we meet, so as to adjust our projects in terms of their hopes, their abilities, to help them discover and free their gifts.

GOSPEL THOUGHTS ON WELCOME

July 13 - We need to train our hearts to welcome the Word – and there is no better training than truly welcoming the words of others.

July 20 - The good master lets the weeds grow together with the good wheat. His generosity inspires us to welcome people without preferring some to others.

July 27 - To welcome the other is to discover a treasure in a field: a gift for us, a pearl of great value. Welcoming others enriches us.

MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS FROM THE BISHOP JULY 2014 – SPORTS AND LEISURE

The Bishop, as part of his reflections on social issues, (June was the month of the unemployed), has asked us to use the month of July to reflect on how we can use sports and leisure time as opportunities for brotherhood and human growth in an atmosphere of respect for other cultures. As part of these community reflections, the Bishop has asked us to think about the following:

1. This summer, thousands of young people from the different provinces will descend on Gatineau for the francophone games. As a Christian, how will I welcome these athletes and visitors?
2. I will take some time to get to know and understand those who are engaged in sports and leisure activities with me this summer.
