Food for Thought

Reading I Isaiah 5.1-7
Responsorial Psalm The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel
Reading II Philippians 4,6-9
Gospel Matthew 21.42-43

The stone at the top of the arch holds the arch together. Without its strength and correct positioning, the arch falls. Jesus is the rejected one who has become the centre of our faith and our lives.

When Jesus is rejected, it only strengthens His relationship with His Father, who makes Him the keystone and the centre of gospel-faith. He knows our weakness and the pain of rejection; is this what makes us want to be close to Him and to follow Him closely?

MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS FROM THE BISHOP
OCTOBER 2014 – “FOR PEACE IN THE WORLD”

Pray that the Lord will grant peace to the regions of the world most affected by war, terrorism and violence.

Social Reflection:

Each of us has to build a better world, a world of peace, understanding and tolerance. We must not say it's not our fault, it does not concern us, we can't do anything. We can all do something to build peace. When we were kids, our parents told us "little streams make big rivers..." One helps another, that one yet another, and so on: we can and must live in solidarity and become builders of WORLD PEACE....

Our Faith Response:

The Christian faith calls us to live at peace with ourselves, others and God. The prophet Isaiah in his book announced the coming of the Messiah as the "Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9.5). The peace that Jesus came to bring us is not simply human peace, but real, deep peace. In the Gospel of John, Jesus says, "I leave you peace, my peace I give you. I do not give it to you as the world gives it". (John 14, 27). The peace proclaimed by Jesus is the peace that transforms both individuals and society. In the Catholic tradition, peace is associated with the expressions justice, development and the common good. What can we do in our daily living to contribute to such peace?

Resolution for Week:

Sunday, October 5, 2014: I pay attention to the media and learn about one war-torn country. I choose a particular country and I speak about it to those around me. Throughout the week, I keep this country in my prayer.

TRANSFORMATION COMMITTEE NEWS

La Table de Bethlehem

At a recent Transformation Committee meeting, it was decided to respond to an August article in Le Bulletin, an appeal to the community to assist our local "soup kitchen" for school-aged children called La Table de Bethlehem. The Committee members decided to forward this appeal to our two parishes and make this our Thanksgiving project.

Until Thanksgiving, we ask parishioners to respond to this appeal by providing any of the following items:

- Canned goods: veggies such as corn, sauces, fruit
- Soda crackers
- Juices (Oasis)
- Baking goods: flour, baking soda, baking powder
- Pasta (bows or macaroni)

La Table de Bethlehem prepares healthy meals with the freshest ingredients possible. They purchase fruits, vegetables and meat from local markets on a regular basis. Consequently, there is always a need for money to make these purchases. All monetary donations will be gratefully accepted.

Following this special Thanksgiving collection, all the non-perishables received at both parishes will continue to be distributed to our local food bank, La Mie de l'entraide.

Development and Peace

The fall action campaign for Development and Peace is now available on the D&P website - the campaign documents were reviewed by the Committee members and a decision was made to order the applicable documents. More information to follow once documentation is received.
