Food for Thought

Reading I Ezekiel 47.1-2, 8-9, 12
Responsorial Psalm The streams make glad the city of God, the habitation of the Most High.
Reading II 1 Corinthians 3-9b-11, 16-17
Gospel John 2.13-22

Today's feast is one dedicated to celebrating a building. At first glance, this feast is one in which we may have a hard time getting our heads around. Taken at face value, the church is indeed bricks and mortar.

However, that is not the case. Think about it; in bygone days, a place of worship was called a temple, which in many ways seems so much more spiritual. But don't be fooled; no matter the terminology, the Church as a building is a sacred symbol. It is a symbol of our beliefs as a faithful and generous community. It serves as a vessel of worship to an all-loving higher power that professes love and mercy for all.

MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS FROM THE BISHOP
NOVEMBER 2014 – “FOR THE LONELY”

Pray that those who live in solitude experience the closeness of God and the support of their brothers and sisters: people bullied, people who have lived breakups, the homeless, the mourners, the strangers ....

Social Conscience

We live in a society where increasing social problems lead to imbalances, inequalities, discharges. Individualism, often leads to indifference between humans. Women, men, young people are living situations of isolation and rejection in our society. Think of the homeless, the victims of bullying, the divorced, the immigrants and those with disabilities. As Christian communities how could we welcome them?

Our Faith Response

The God of Jesus Christ invites us to an unconditional acceptance of our sisters and brothers. He has a special concern for the most vulnerable of our society. We just have to think of all the occasions that He healed the marginalized. By his Incarnation, Jesus breaks the cycle of individualism inviting us to enter in relation with our sisters and brothers. Pope Francis writes: “In his Incarnation, the Son of God has invited us to the revolution of love”. How can we as Christian men and women apply the revolution and tenderness in our lives and around us?

Reflection

November 9, 2014 – I take the time to visit some people who live in solitude, to be for them an image of the tenderness of Jesus.

NOVEMBER – THE MONTH IN WHICH WE REMEMBER THE DECEASED

The month of November is a special month for praying for the faithful departed with whom we are in the same Communion of the Saints. We are, therefore, encouraged to keep them in our prayers, and if possible, offer Masses on their behalf.

The following parishioners, who died during the last year, have been added to our Books of Life:

St. Malachy

Peter Ellement
Raymond Berndt
Gladys Miller
Mary Margaret Preston
Irene Doris Brown
Emma Huber
Marcella Berndt

Our Lady of Victory

William Lawlis
Bertha Laframboise
Hugh McFaul
Connie Kane
Mavis Burke
Jerry Lawlis
Sheila Beauchamp
Marlene Brazeau

We also remember in a special way those who lost their lives in service to their country.

The Book of Life, placed next to the Easter Candle, speaks of the ultimate victory of life over death, of light over darkness, in the dead and risen Jesus. We are called to share in that victory.

ST. MALACHY NEWS

A Wardens' Meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, November 12, 2014, at 7 pm in the Rectory.

DIOCESAN PASTORAL PRIORITY 2014-2017 - FREE THE GIFTS, SHARE THE WORD

More than four months have passed since the launching of the Diocesan Pastoral Priority for 2014-2017: "Free the Gifts, Share the Word." Information on this project was introduced in two June bulletins. The reason for this special Diocesan project was a direct result of the Archbishop's pastoral visits.

The Archbishop is inviting everyone to reflect personally on our welcoming attitudes and to bear in mind that there are multiple daily occasions to do so. The project's goals can be found in the pamphlet you received today with the bulletin, which outlines the steps in achieving these goals. The Inter-Parish Planning Committee is presently reviewing the Diocesan documentation on the first step.
