Food for Thought

Reading 1 Deuteronomy 18.15-20
Responsorial Psalm O that today you would listen to the voice of the Lord
Reading II 1 Corinthians 7-32-35
Gospel Mark 1.21-28

For the people present at this strange event, the exorcising of an unclean spirit identified Jesus as an agent of God. The battle here is between Jesus and the evil spirit, between good and evil. What happened in this conflict at the beginning of Jesus 'ministry made Him famous in Galilee.

The very presence of Jesus challenged all that was contrary to Him. Does my way of living call people beyond where they are?

MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS FROM THE ARCHBISHOP FEBRUARY 2015 - "CONSECRATE LIFE"

That during this year dedicated to the consecrated life, men and women religious may rediscover the joy of following Christ and may commit themselves with holy zeal in service to the poor.

Reflection on Social Issues

Throughout our diocesan history, men and women religious, by means of their work in the fields of education, health and social work have been close to the reality of the people by living amongst them and being sensitive to human suffering. Today, religious congregations are no longer recognized through their habits, their charities, their knowledge or their size, but rather through a discrete presence in and amongst lay people supporting their projects for the poor and the marginalized of society. The consecrated life remains a testimony which can still influence a world in search of meaning and a coming-to-be. The foremost areas of commitment for the CRC (Canadian Religious Conference) are social justice, peace, and respect for Creation.

Our Faith Response

Inspired by the charism or spirituality of this or that religious congregation, lay people are now stepping up to transform the world. Through their being and their action, these religious and lay persons reveal the nearness and the face of God amongst us, bringing a positive -- evangelical even -- influence to bear on the world around them.

Questions we need to ask ourselves

Sunday 1 February 2015: This week, I will take the time to think about some religious who was significant to my faith life. On February 2nd, a day dedicated to the consecrated life, I will spend some time praying for him or her.

February 2nd – Day for Consecrated Life

Conversion Program

The Parish is in the process of calling for tenders to convert our oil-based furnace system to a natural gas system. Experts have assured us that this approach to natural gas is the right decision and will result in a saving of a substantial amount of funds over the short and long term. This investment in gas will require a substantial upfront cash outlay, so a meeting with Parishioners will be held to get community approval and input before moving forward. The deadline date for receiving the tenders is February 6th. A meeting with Parishioners is scheduled for Sunday, February 15th.
