Food for Thought

Reading 1 Job 7.1-4, 6-7
Responsorial Psalm Sing praise to the Lord who heals the brokenhearted
Reading II 1 Corinthians 9.16-19, 22-23
Gospel Mark 1.29-39

In this time of His life, Jesus seems busy with many people – His disciples, their families, and whole cities looking for Him. Faith for Him, as for us, is always in the midst of life, in the middle of the cares and concerns. It is amidst the difficulties and joys of ordinary life and with all the people who are part of our lives that our faith comes to life.

All this is part of prayer, as we pray with and for others. Who might come into your prayer now that you can talk to the Lord about?

MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS FROM THE ARCHBISHOP FEBRUARY 2015 - "CONSECRATE LIFE"

That during this year dedicated to the consecrated life, men and women religious may rediscover the joy of following Christ and may commit themselves with holy zeal in service to the poor.

Reflection on Social Issues

Throughout our diocesan history, men and women religious, by means of their work in the fields of education, health and social work have been close to the reality of the people by living amongst them and being sensitive to human suffering. Today, religious congregations are no longer recognized through their habits, their charities, their knowledge or their size, but rather through a discrete presence in and amongst lay people supporting their projects for the poor and the marginalized of society. The consecrated life remains a testimony which can still influence a world in search of meaning and a coming-to-be. The foremost areas of commitment for the CRC (Canadian Religious Conference) are social justice, peace, and respect for Creation.

Our Faith Response

Inspired by the charism or spirituality of this or that religious congregation, lay people are now stepping up to transform the world. Through their being and their action, these religious and lay persons reveal the nearness and the face of God amongst us, bringing a positive -- evangelical even -- influence to bear on the world around them.

Sunday, 8 February 2015: I will speak about the importance of those in religious life to my environment. I will explain to the younger generation the manner in which nuns and brothers in religious life helped develop Quebec society.

Conversion Program

The Parish is in the process of calling for tenders to convert our oil-based furnace system to a natural gas system. Experts have assured us that this approach to natural gas is the right decision and will result in a saving of a substantial amount of funds over the short and long term. This investment in gas will require a substantial upfront cash outlay, so a meeting with Parishioners will be held to get community approval and input before moving forward. The deadline date for receiving the tenders is February 6th. A meeting with Parishioners is scheduled for Sunday, February 15th after mass in hall.
