Food for Thought

Reading 1 Jeremiah 31.31-34
Responsorial Psalm Create in me a clean heart, O God
Reading II Hebrews 5.7-9
Gospel John 12.20-33

In every death, there is life – this is the big message of Lent and of Easter. The grain of wheat will die and will through death nourish us with food.

In the death of relationships, of health, of faith and of all that may be dear to us, there is always the invitation to deeper life. In our final death is the call to everlasting life.

Our Lenten voyage began with Ash Wednesday. The ashes we received were made by burning the blessed palms used during last year's celebrations. You are invited to bring your old palms to Church next weekend and place them in the basket at the entrance.

OUR JOURNEY TOWARDS EASTER

5TH Sunday: Welcoming, A New Way of Life

Jesus announces the meaning of his death as a way to new life... and he calls us to take up this journey with him. Welcoming another means dying a bit to ourselves. For we must empty ourselves of our own self-importance if we are to create a bit of space for the other. Welcoming can become a way of new life if we really turn to another in love, with Christ.

*Star of the new evangelization, service, ardent and generous faith,

justice and love of the poor,
that the joy of the Gospel
may reach to the ends of the Earth, illuminating even the fringes of our world.*

Today, on the Fifth Sunday of Lent, Solidarity Sunday, we join the Holy Father in praying that we may all be radiant witnesses and that through our support of DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE, the joy of the Gospel may indeed illuminate even the darkest corners of our world!
