FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Reading 1 Job 38.1-4. 8-11
Responsorial Psalm Give thanks to the Lord; his steadfast love endures forever
Reading II 2 Corinthians 5.14-17
Gospel Mark 4.35-41

Lord, I know no better proof of Your health and strength than this scene. You had the gift of sleeping in any situation. You slept on the cushions in the stern which the waves were beating and almost swamping the boat.

And when You awoke, You brought calm. To voyage with You is to voyage in peace even in a storm.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION - CONFIRMATION

The Preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation has now come to an end. Five candidates from our two parishes will be receiving the sacrament of Confirmation on Sunday, June 21st. Our faith community will be graced by these candidates who will come forward requesting Confirmation. This commitment on the part of our candidates is an important step in their faith journey. They have been preparing for this since last January.

As a faith community, we are all called to transmit the Good News of Jesus Christ to the world. It is by our very Baptism that we are all called to share our faith with each other, growing and maturing in our life-long journey towards God. We welcome all the candidates being confirmed:

Tasha De Vocht
Jeffrey Gauthier
Angie McNamara
Mikayla Payette
Marshall Payette

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Happy Father's day to all our fathers on this their special day.
Please remember them in your prayers.

MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTIONS FROM THE ARCHBISHOP - JUNE

"That political responsibility be exercised at all levels of government as a high form of charity"

Reflection on Social Issues: Politics in Quebec and Canada does not always enjoy a good reputation. It is distrusted and ridiculed by many. Yet political activity is noble in that it serves society and the common good. Quebec MPP Martine Ouellette writes in her book: "I understood early on in my career as a political militant that my commitment was a formidable one, a powerful way to change things, to promote the common good and foster social and economic development for people."¹ As Christians, how do we define ourselves in regards to the public square and political activity?

Our Faith Response: In the New Testament, Jesus invites us to build the Kingdom of God. The first believers had to set up communities of believers. These continued to play a spiritual and political role in society. Christians are called to experience a political reflection based on love of neighbour, the common good and a preferential option for the poor. We are invited, through our ecclesial, social and community commitments to let Christian principles inform all of our decisions. How do we apply Christian principles to our decisions?

Sunday 21 June 2015: I reflect on the political decisions taken by our society. How well do they reflect Gospel values and teachings?
