FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Reading 1 Daniel 7.13-14
Responsorial Psalm The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty
Reading II Revelation 1.5-8
Gospel

For Jesus the red carpet is the tattered flooring in a poor house, and the crown is the headache he got from the sufferings of his people. In Jesus, the King, we are all brothers and sisters in the image of God. God is so big that we're like him.

What does that mean now? This is the big act of faith that we will soak ourselves in during Advent – that God became one like us, one of us, was born, lived, suffered, and died like the rest of us. The real God is found in real people.

Christ the King

Today, the last Sunday of the Liturgical Year, is the Solemnity of Christ the King. The three readings rightly refer to the universal kingship of Christ. Daniel had a vision of the Son of Man to whom “was given dominion and glory and kingship that all peoples, nations and languages should serve him” and “whose dominion will be everlasting.” The book of Revelation (second reading), refer to Christ as “the ruler of the kings of the earth.” In the Gospel, Pilate questions the obvious, “are you king of the Jews?,” and, “so you are a king?,” to which Jesus answered, “you say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth.”

That the Church caps off its Liturgical Year with the Solemnity of Christ the King is not without a serious significance. For one, it means that the whole Liturgical Year is, or ought to proclaim that Christ is the King. There is a saying: after the race, you count the miles. As a Church, or individuals can we boldly say that our lives (thoughts, words and deeds, etc.,) this passing year have proclaimed the kinship of Jesus Christ? If ‘yes’, we have another chance to better our present best; if ‘no’, we also have another chance to make amends.

The First Sunday of Advent (next Sunday) marks the beginning of another journey to showcase the kingship of Christ, in our Church, our community and our world. This journey entails surrendering our lives to Jesus every day, accepting him as our God, Saviour, and King and allowing him to rule our lives. It also involves recognizing his presence in everyone, especially the poor, the sick, the outcast and the marginalized in the society and rendering humble and loving service to Jesus in each of us. Happy Christ the King!

As we have done for many years, our two parishes will participate in the Lions Club Telethon. Contributions to the Telethon can be made by placing your donation – cash or cheque made out to the Lions Club – in a plain envelope marked Lions Club in front, and add it to the regular collection next weekend. If you wish a tax receipt from the Lions Club, please ensure that your name and address are included with your donation so that a receipt can be returned to you.

Christmas is a time of giving, of thanking God for all we have. It is also an opportune time to reach out and help those less fortunate than ourselves.

THE BOOK OF LIFE

In our two parishes, we have a tradition of leaving our Book of Life at the front of the church for the month of November, a special month for praying for the faithful departed.

Parishioners will notice that Advent begins on November 29th this year – the church will include new decoration to indicate the season of Advent. Please note that the Book of Life will remain available in our two churches until the end of the month, next to the Easter Candle which speaks of the ultimate victory of life over death, of light over darkness, in the dead and risen Jesus.

St. Malachy Wardens' Meeting - Wednesday, November 25th, at 7:00 pm in Sacristy. Election of Wardens: Each year two Church wardens are to be elected for a term of three years and can remain in office for two consecutive terms. This year two wardens will be completing two consecutive terms. If you or someone you know, with his/her approval, would like to serve as warden and help the Parish in that capacity, please submit the name to a member of the Fabrique or call the office at 819-986-3763 by December 10th.
