A Message from Archbishop Durocher On the Occasion of Volunteer Week
A Free Act – A Collective Impact

At the start of this Volunteer Week, I want to recognize all the members of our parishes who, in the name of their baptism, contribute time, talent and resources to the wellbeing of their parish and civil communities.

Many of you spend your time without seeking remuneration to advance a project or provide a service. You share your talents with the people around you, you make your donations, and you support a work or a project for the common good.

Some of you choose to focus your energies on parish life. I thank God because, without you, there would be no choir nor catechesis nor assistance to the poor; there would be no local leadership teams or fabrique councils. Without you, our parishes would merely be empty structures. But thanks to you, our parishes are living, dynamic and engaged communities. Thank you!

Others choose to commit themselves to the civil community: their village, their neighborhood or their region. Walking in the footsteps of Jesus, you want to make a difference in the world by improving the living conditions of the poor, contributing to youth development, accompanying the elderly in their loneliness. Thanks to you, our society is improved and those who are more fragile feel accompanied, supported and loved. Thank you!

This year our diocese has identified affirmation as the attitude to develop among us. I take this opportunity to remind each of you of your great value for the life of our parishes and our civilian communities. May you find always more happiness in making others happy!

+ Paul-André Durocher, Archbishop of Gatineau.

ARCHBISHOP'S MONTHLY PRAYER INTENTION: APRIL 2016

Reflection: Sunday, April 10th, 2016: I pay particular attention to encouraging small local agriculture, and economic purchasing, e.g. the Marché de Solidarité de l'Outaouais and the Marché Mobile de Gatineau, (the latter will be opening business during the spring of 2016). This week is the Canadian Week of Volunteers; how do we praise them in our communities?

Thank you for supporting Share Lent 2016!

Development and Peace wishes to thank all those who made a gift to the Share Lent campaign! Through your generosity, a total of $ 1043.00 was collected in our two parishes. This will serve the needs of our sisters and brothers in Africa, Asia, Latin America, and the Middle East in their struggle for dignity and justice.

Once again, thanks to one and all for your extraordinary generosity!
