Allow me to introduce myself:

My name is Father Greg Murray SCJ. The SCJ signifies that I am a member of the religious congregation of the Priests of the Sacred Heart. That means that I am a religious priest, and therefore not tied to any particular diocese.

I was born and raised in Montreal, Québec in an anglophone family. I am the middle child of three. My mother now lives in PEI and my father passed away eight years ago. I was raised a Catholic but did not practice my faith for many years.

I returned to the Church in 1994, as a parishioner at St. Dunstan's in Charlottetown. I took my final vows with my religious congregation in 2003 and was ordained to the priesthood in 2004. I have ministered mostly in parishes in the Ottawa diocese, but lately have spent three years in the Diocese of Montreal, where I worked in three francophone parishes.

I am very pleased to be working now in the diocese of Gatineau. Thank you all for your warm welcome.

Our Lady of Victory and St. Malachy News

Prayers & Sympathy: Let us remember in our prayers the repose of the soul of Guy Deslauriers, husband of Irene Lemieux whose service was on July 24th. Our sympathy to the family and friends at this time of their loss.

Father Gregory: Can be reached at St. Aloysius at 819-663-5244 and Carol (secretary) will take your message or forward you to Father if he is in. Also every Thursday at OLV, after 9:00 a.m. Mass. Call the office at 819-986-3763 and schedule your time with him.

Update from Father Albanus: I am fine now. As expected I was sick for a while because of the rainy season and its attendant sickness; something likened to seasonal flu in Canada. I have seen my bishop; but I am yet to get a placement. Hopefully I will be given a position soon. Say Hi to all our parishioners!

Mass Intentions: Did you know you can request that a mass service be celebrated for a particular personal intention such as remembering a deceased loved one, praying for the sick or any other special intention.

Your request can be honored by calling the parish office at 819-986-3763 and reserving your special date, what the intention is and for whom. All this for $20.00!

Looking for washing machine: Are you planning to update your working washing machine? Is it in good shape? Please call the office 819-986-3763 to donate.

Ongoing donations: Used postage stamps, used candles, pop tabs and food for the Food Bank.

Rosary beads: These are for sale in the office and are all plastic. These items are sold at Our Lady of Knock Shrine. Call OLV office.

DIOCESAN UPDATE ON PUBLIC HEALTH PROTOCOLS

Steps to return to normalcy:

Over the next few weeks, Our Lady of Victory and St. Malachy parishes will be implementing an updated protocol on mass celebrations. We have decided to implement these changes on a phased-in basis. Just a reminder that sanitation procedures and the wearing of masks when moving in the church are still in effect.

On the first weekend of August, there will be an entrance procession from the church entrance, with Fr. Gregory, the Lector and the Altar Server. The Lector and Fr. Gregory will share the Lectionary at the ambo. Both will sanitize before using the Lectionary. After the final blessing, Fr. Gregory, the Lector and the Server will proceed to the church entrance as was the case in the past. The faithful can greet Fr. Gregory, preferably outside, while keeping face masks on and observing the one-metre rule.

On the August 7th - 8th weekend, the seating will be re-organized to represent the change of one-metre distancing. We can resume the procession of the gifts by members of the assembly. Those who bring the offerings to the priest disinfect their hands before doing so and wear a mask.

Cantor and Singing:

At present, no choirs are allowed. The Cantor at St. Malachy will continue and OLV is studying the possibility of having a Cantor to sing parts of the mass. While a Cantor will be singing, it is still not permitted for the congregation to sing along because of the implementation of the one-metre distancing.

Communion:

Fr. Gregory will continue to go to the faithful who will remain at their places.
