FOOD FOR THOUGHT

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Wisdom 9.13-18

Responsorial Psalm: Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations

Second Reading: Philemon 9b-10, 12-17

Gospel: Luke 14.25-33

Lord, as you spoke, you were on your way to Jerusalem and the passion. The cross was not a little ornament to wear round the neck, but a terrifying symbol of evil, torture and death.

There may be feel-good times in my piety, but I must be ready for the feel-fear times, too, when I join you in your darkest hour.

OUR LADY OF VICTORY & ST. MALACHY NEWS

Bulletins: We are back to the weekly Church bulletin. Hopefully you all had a great summer and are looking forward to our weekly news.

Office hours: Please note that the office will be closed on Monday, September 5th and open on September 6th.

Father Greg: Can be reached at St. Aloysius at 819-663-5244 and Carol (secretary) will take your message or forward you to Father, if he is in.

Father Away: Will be away from September 12th to 15th for a Regional Meeting with his Order.

Baptism: The sacrament of Baptism will be celebrated at St. Malachy's parish on Saturday, September 17th, during the Saturday evening mass. This will lengthen the usual celebration considerably. We hope many of you will attend, lending your Christian support to a young parent who is attempting to raise her child in the faith. Thank you for your understanding. Fr. Greg.

FOUND: An earring was found in the church hall on July 14th. If you have lost one please call the office.

Looking for owner: There was a rack (like a rack to hold quilt) in the old Bingo room (bottom of stairs at the right of the entrance) found and we would like to return it to the owner. If it is yours – please call the office.

Still collecting: Used postage stamps, pop tabs and used candles. Also, your weekly donation of egg cartons and food for our local Food Bank.

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

The Directory for Bishops stipulates that the diocesan pastor should make a pastoral visit of his parishes every five years. I made such a visit shortly after my arrival in Gatineau in 2011. I had intended to do a second one a few years ago, but our diocesan synodal process and the subsequent pandemic forced me to postpone that project. I believe the time has come to put my good intentions into action. I am therefore announcing an episcopal pastoral visit of the parishes of the archdiocese beginning this October.

I propose to proceed by zones. The tentative schedule for the English Zone is from January 15 to February 15, 2023. For each of the zones, I would like to form a team of priests and some lay leaders to prepare, animate and evaluate the visit. Among the proposed activities: a regional retreat, workshops on the priorities identified during the synodal consultation (living liturgies, welcoming parishes, sharing the Word), sessions on evangelization, etc.

Each parish will be invited to make an analysis of its vitality, based on guidelines that will be provided to them in preparation for the visit. This will allow us to look together at the future of Christian life in the area and the paths to follow to ensure the spread of the Gospel in the community.

I ask all the faithful of the diocese to hold this visit in their prayers starting today. Together, let us live this time as a moment of celebration, discernment and communion.
