READINGS & REFLECTION

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 49.3, 5-6
Responsorial Psalm: Here I am Lord; I come to do your will.
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1.1-3
Gospel: John 1.29-34

Somehow John the Baptist realized that this Jesus is the one to come. In the guidance of the Spirit, John has come to make Jesus known, and in Jesus' baptism John realized – he knew in his deepest being – that this was the Son of God.

What we know and discover in prayer, in our hearts, is often difficult to share or prove to another. Today, allow yourself to open your heart to what the Spirit of God teaches in prayer.

WE ARE BACK IN ORDINARY TIME

The first period of Ordinary Time (from after the Christmas season until the beginning of Lent) focuses on the early events of Jesus' public life, especially the call of the disciples and the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. These weeks at the beginning of the New Year might be a good time for each of us to assess how well we hear God's relentless call to be faithful followers of Jesus. Each of us can probably recall times when we have turned deaf ears to God; if we remember that God's call is relentless, then we might be encouraged to listen more carefully and sooner. God won't let go!

Our Lady of Victory Needs You

Our Parish is at a crossroad when it comes to volunteers. We face a serious shortfall. There is an urgent need for Parishioners to come forward and volunteer as church wardens.

There is a myth that being a warden is a complicated and time-consuming commitment. This is not the case. What I am proposing is that interested candidates would attend an information session where questions and responsibilities would be addressed. Once all issues have been addressed, candidates could make an informed decision on whether to move forward or not. We really need to address the Wardens issue as soon as possible in order to comply with rules and regulations that govern the administration of the Parish.

If you are interested in attending an information session on being a Warden, please contact me at 819-986-8901. Bill Cameron, Chairperson of the Fabrique Our Lady of Victory Parish
