READINGS & REFLECTION

ASCENSION OF THE LORD (World Communication Day)

First Reading: Acts 1.1-11
Responsorial Psalm: God has gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet
Second Reading: Ephesians 1.17-23
Gospel: Mathew 28.16-20

A man went one starry night and shook his fist at the heavens yelling, "Oh God what a lousy, rotten world you have made. I could have done much better." Then a voice boomed from the clouds saying "That is why I put you there. Get busy."

The feast of the Ascension marks the time when Jesus puts us in charge of His mission and of His work promising to be always with us. Let me talk to the Lord, to discover where I can do His work.

OLV NEWS

Recent events such as the ice storm and the water leakage in the church hall have made me reflect on the important role of volunteers working behind the scenes. I would like to publicly acknowledge these individuals:

- To Lyall Campbell, Gail Preston and Mervin Butler who took on the task of removing the debris caused by the recent ice storm. Lyall and Gail then proceeded to plant a number of lilac trees along the back fence.
- To Mervin Butler and Lyall Campbell in seeking ways to address water leakage in the church hall.

In addition, I would like to recognize the following:

- To Susan Lemieux, Lyall Campbell, Gail Preston, Ken Simpson and Theresa Ritchie who weekly keep the church clean and spotless.
- To Susan Lemieux for preparing the altar and serving for mass every Thursday and Sunday.
- To Ken Simpson who takes on the task of regulating and managing the heat for the church and the hall, including the upkeep of the furnace.

I know that I share with all our parishioners an appreciation for the work of all our volunteers. Thank You to Everyone!

Policy for the Protection of Children and Vulnerable Persons in the Archdiocese of Gatineau

For the sake of the little ones (Pr 31:9) ...protect minors and vulnerable adults

(The following item is further to the Diocesan message that was published in the parish bulletin of April 22-23, 2023)

*The second value in the Code of ethics: Autonomy and Self determination.

No matter where we come from, how we were brought up, or what we are capable of, each one of us has the right to express themselves, to make their own choices, to act and think for themselves. This is what the value of autonomy and self-determination in our Code of ethics means. Encourage your peers to express themselves and discuss their opinions. It is not always easy to accept having our ideas questioned by people whose opinions or experiences are different from our own. Of course, this needs to be done respectfully, that is, in consideration of others' existence, ideas, and opinions. Maintaining prejudices, violating the right to speak, seeking to control others are just some examples of not living up to this value. "Love one another with mutual affection" (Romans 12:10).

With the people we serve and in our relationships with volunteers and employees, let's encourage one another to express ourselves and share our points of view. Still to come, our third value.

Chantale Duguay, Coordinator for establishing safe environments.
