For those of you familiar with QR Codes, go to your telephone/tablet QR icon, point it to one of the QR Codes on the paper bulletin and you will be immediately directed to the donate icon on our website. You will then be able to make an on-line donation. Once you have access to this QR Code you will be asked to make your donation to the church of your choice. Policy for the Protection of Children and Vulnerable Persons in the Archdiocese of Gatineau

For the sake of the little ones (Pr 31:9) ...protect minors and vulnerable adults

(The following item is further to the Diocesan messages that were published in the parish bulletins in April and May)

The third value in our Code of Ethics is Personal safety.

We aren't talking about financial security here! Or taking shelter under your porch during a storm! We are talking about being committed to a way of behaving, using gestures and words that are safe in all situations. It means finding the right balance between proximity and personal distance. Our attitudes and actions are influenced by our culture, education, mores, and customs. When in our company, the people we serve and work with, should feel sheltered from all physical, sexual, emotional, moral, and spiritual danger. It means being prudent in our interpersonal relationships as Church. "A prudent person is one who takes time to step back, reflect and discern." (Father Rémi de Maindreville). Employees and volunteers behave safely when they avoid personal communications with minors and vulnerable adults on social media, by telephone or email. They act safely when they never travel alone with vulnerable persons without authorization, when they don't spend time alone with them, or participate in any activities that make the vulnerable person feel uncomfortable.

Next article: fourth value, confidentiality
