QR CODE ON COVER OF PARISH BULLETIN

The Gatineau Diocese has produced a QR Code for each parish, which you will find on the front cover of our bulletin for both parishes. For those of you familiar with QR Codes, go to your telephone/tablet QR icon, point it to one of the QR Codes on the paper bulletin and you will be immediately directed to the donate icon on our website. You will then be able to make an on-line donation.

Once you have access to this QR Code you will be asked to make your donation(s) to the church of your choice. A confirmation will be sent to you from the Diocese. Then the Diocese will send OLV Church a list of the donator(s), donation(s) and address which will be recorded so that an Income Tax Receipt can be sent to you in February.

Policy for the Protection of Children and Vulnerable Persons in the Archdiocese of Gatineau

For the sake of the little ones (Pr 31:9) ...protect minors and vulnerable adults

(The following item is further to the Diocesan messages that were published in the parish bulletins in April and May)

Message from the Diocesan Coordinator for Establishing Safe Environments

“You shall not steal”, God’s 7th commandment. In a way, you might say that this commandment summarizes the 5th and last value in our Code of Ethics and Conduct: Loyalty and Integrity! Being honest and loyal. Do what is right. This last value seems to touch on all the expected behaviours included in our Code of ethics: act with respect, honesty, justice, fairness, confidentiality, etc. The parish must be able to place its trust in its employees and volunteers.

To have integrity is to rigorously observe, in all one's actions, the principles of justice and morality. Big words to say what exactly? They can trust me, I am a responsible person and I own the choices and decisions I make, I show gratitude towards others, I admit my mistakes, I don't take parish donations for myself, I don't use social networks to post malicious criticisms or insinuations about my parish or its employees and volunteers. A person of integrity is also someone who willingly offers to help, who is sincere in both words and actions. Finally, it also means that I will denounce any inappropriate behaviour, abusive language or gestures, especially when made towards minors or vulnerable persons.

Chantale Duguay, Coordinator for establishing safe environments.

NOTE: THE POLICY WITH ALL THE VALUES CAN BE FOUND ON OUR WEBSITE
