GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION FOR THE NEEDS OF THE CHURCH IN THE HOLY LAND

The Holy Land Collection brings an indispensable support to the Christian minority throughout the Middle East, not only in Israel and Palestine but in Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, Iraq and Iran and other regions. To put this in perspective, consider that, presently in the State of Israel and Palestine, Christians make up about 1.5 percent of the total population. This means that there are only about 130,000 thousand Arab Christians from thirteen different Christian denominations living among 10,000,000 people. Christians' lives become very difficult and many families are forced to leave in order to seek a livelihood, or to avoid various forms of discrimination and persecution. When the Christian presence disappears, the loss of a Christian culture and the holy sites, precious and vital for Christians throughout the world, follow in the wake. With monies from the collection for the Holy Land, the Franciscan Custody undertakes numerous initiatives for the people and assures the continued possession and care of Christian shrines.

In the parishes of the Diocese of Gatineau, the 2024 collection raised $11,372.85. Thank you for your generosity.
