A WORD FROM FATHER JOHN

The leper in Sunday's Gospel is a very just man besides being a man of deep faith which Jesus acknowledges. He is just because he gives to God what is his due: heartfelt thanksgiving for his immense goodness towards him.

"By itself, justice is not enough. Indeed, it can even betray itself, unless it is open to that deeper power which is love". In fact, the Church's social doctrine places alongside the value of justice that of solidarity, in that it is the privileged way of peace. If peace is the fruit of justice, "today one could say, with the same exactness and the same power of biblical inspiration (cf. Is 32:17; Jas 3:18): Opus solidaritatis pax, peace as the fruit of solidarity". The goal of peace, in fact, "will certainly be achieved through the putting into effect of social and international justice, but also through the practice of the virtues which favour togetherness, and which teach us to live in unity, so as to build in unity, by giving and receiving, a new society and a better world". (Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church, 203.) Blessed Thanksgiving to each of you! Peace. Fr. John
