READINGS & REFLECTION

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – January 25th

First Reading: Isaiah 9.1-4
Responsorial Psalm: The Lord is my light and my salvation.
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1.10-13, 17-18
Gospel: Matthew 4.12-23

In the Apostolic Letter Aperuit illis, Pope Francis instituted the Sunday of the Word of God, which is celebrated on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time. “Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world.”

Pope Francis, Aperuit illis, 2

Also, Father John will be staying in the office on these days and will be available for phone calls or meetings with you. Call the office at 819-986-3763 to confirm your time and date.

DAY OFF: Father John will be taking every Wednesday as his weekly day off.

BLESSING OF THROATS: Will take place at St. Malachy mass on January 31st & OLV on February 1st.

ST. MALACHY: Last weekend Mary Browne and Sandra Maloney were welcomed as the Fabrique's new wardens. Thank you, Mary and Sandra for accepting to join the Fabrique of the Parish of St. Malachy as wardens. Also, a big thanks to outgoing wardens Cheryl and Peter Cameron for their many years of dedicated service. Leila Corrigan will stay on as a warden until a replacement is found. Leila will replace Joan Teske as treasurer.

FATHER JOHN'S MESSAGE

Once more this Sunday opens a window into the inauguration of Jesus' public ministry and its significance. In 732 BC the territory of Galilee was overrun by the Assyrian army and devastated. The territory became the Assyrian region of Megiddo and was largely repopulated by gentile peoples. The educated and influential Israelites of the tribes of Zebulun and Napthali that formerly inhabited these lands were the first to be led into exile. These first to experience exile will now be the first to hear the words of the Gospel. Jesus' decision to begin his ministry in this multiethnic region foreshadows the future proclamation of the Gospel to the world. The message is the same for all of us, regardless, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.” The challenge on the culmination of the Octave of the Prayer for Christian Unity, today, is that our preaching of the Gospel must also witness to the unity of all believers in Christ. Peace. Fr. John

Is Life Always Worth Living?

A WORKSHOP ON AGING, VALUE AND PURPOSE

St. Aloysius Church
300 rue de l'Abbé Murray, Gatineau

January 31st, 10am -2pm

On this day at St. Aloysius Parish Hall, Nicole Scheidl and Amanda Achtman (Physicians for Life (Ottawa)) will be giving a presentation/workshop on ageing, meaning and living well until our last breath.

I highly recommend that as many of our parishioners as possible attend this workshop, especially the elderly. It will answer many important questions regarding our Catholic faith and dying well. I will be happy to give a ride there and back to any two elderly parishioners from Our Lady of Victory Parish.

Registration is online ($15 before January 28th) or at the door ($20). For more information see the diocesan website.

A BUFFET STYLE LUNCH WILL BE AVAILABLE and ALL DISHES WILL HAVE A DESCRIPTION OF THEIR CONTENTS.

Together we will explore:

- How our lives continue to have meaning amid illness, disability, dependence, and loss
- Why living until natural death can become a gift of hope for others
- How the way a story ends changes the meaning of every page

Two mini talks, Q&A, a delicious lunch, and a workshop all included!

Call Monique to Register at 819-771-8391 Ext. 323 or Sign Up On Line
