FATHER JOHN'S MESSAGE

King Josiah's long reign of 31 years (c. 640–609 BC) was one of reform and renewal for the Kingdom of Judah. Zephaniah was prophesying in the early reign of Josiah before the reform measures had really taken root in the realm. The kingdom was still reeling from the decades of religious apostasy of Kings Manasseh and Amnon. Zephaniah preached a moral and spiritual renewal beginning with the practice of justice, humility and honest dealings with each other.

For us who believe in Christ, our humility lies in the sincere acknowledgement that our spiritual renewal comes from Jesus alone who is our source of wisdom, our right living, our becoming holy and our being ransomed back from slavery to the devil.

None of us can live the beatitudes unless the grace of Christ gives us the power to embrace them. But humility of heart remains the foundation of the whole edifice of the Beatitudes. As a ladder of ascent turn the beatitudes upside down and you have an ascent to holiness.

Peace. Fr. John
