FATHER JOHN'S MESSAGE

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

It is still part of the teachings of the Sermon on the Mount we are hearing in today's Gospel when we are called to be salt of the earth and light of the world. Both these physical realities have significant interior and exterior consequences. Salt preserves food from corruption and light enables us to see the visible creation. For this reason, these physical elements are also symbols of spiritual realities. Salt can be compared to the vigor and quality of our moral life and relationships that preserve in us what is good and holy. Light is often a symbol for faith which is able to penetrate the disguise of Christ in the poor, the prisoners, the hungry, the thirsty and the naked and to serve him willingly and with joy. This kind of spiritual salt and light is wisdom which is only learned from Jesus and him crucified.

Peace. Fr. John
