FATHER JOHN’S MESSAGE

5th Sunday in Easter A

Almost everything we have in this life has a shelf life, even our bodies! We are called to bear fruit; fruit that will outlast this earthly life and endure for all eternity. If you wonder about it, it can put you into a state of prayer or fear. Fear when we consider our inability to produce this kind of fruit. Prayer because we know and desire that Jesus will produce it in us. “We follow you, Lord Jesus; but for that, call us, because without you, no one goes up. You are the way, the truth, the life, the possibility, the faith, the reward. O path, receive us! O truth, strengthen us! O life, give us life!” These were St. Ambrose’s words, when meditating on our Gospel today.

Easter Joy! Fr. John
