FATHER JOHN’S MESSAGE

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time A

Great is the mercy of the Lord. He asks us to expand the room of our hearts to encompass his desires. He desires that his Church be a house of prayer for all peoples. It means that we who live in that house know how to live with strangers, and aliens as well as friends and family in close quarters! The walls of our house have been demolished, so that even the Canaanite woman finds a place for herself and her daughter who was healed instantly because of her belief. The faith of non-believers is precious to God. Like the faith of our Jewish brothers and sisters, it reaches out and receives the same mercy which we receive from Jesus.

Peace. Fr. John

READINGS & REFLECTION

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – August 23rd

First Reading:

Responsorial Psalm:

Second Reading:

Gospel:

Isaiah 22.15, 19-23

Your steadfast love, O lord, endures forever. Do not forsake the work of your hands.

Romans 11.33-36

Matthew 16.13-20

FATHER JOHN’S MESSAGE

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time A

Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah shouldered the burden of spiritual authority in the house Israel. Who would dare to do such a thing unless God called him to the office? And what if God calls a fisherman and man who denied him three times? Who will counsel God, “Don’t do that!” It is not flesh and blood that determines the spiritual authority of the successor of Peter. Just as it is not flesh and blood that provides us with the daily and weekly Eucharist and the sacraments and the bread of his Word. From him and through him are all things. To him be glory for ever. The plans and desires of our Father in heaven are inscrutable and unsearchable, but we revere them with very great love and adoration.

Peace. Fr. John

BRINGING UP THE GIFTS AT OLV

Before the pandemic, during mass at OLV, the offering of Gifts (or Offertory) involved members of the congregation bringing forward the bread and wine, the financial collection baskets and the food baskets for the local Food Bank. Changes were made because of the pandemic.

At a recent wardens meeting, it was decided to return to the pre-pandemic customs. At Sunday celebrations, the collection baskets will once again be passed by the wardens prior to the Offertory. The bread and wine, the collection baskets as well as the food baskets for the Food Bank will be brought forward down the central aisle to be presented to the priest and deacon waiting at the foot of the altar.

ST. GREGOIRE CEMETERY CELEBRATION

Will be held at the cemetery on Sunday, September 13th at 2:00 p.m.
